Buch, S. 85, Aufg. 5a):

a) Musterlösung:

15th April 1912

I am on a big ship with my mum and my aunt now. I feel awful. I'm very tired and my clothes are wet. We left the Titanic three hours ago and it sank after that. We were very sad because there were people on the ship. It was in the early morning and it was very cold. There were lots of people in the lifeboat. There was a dog in the lifeboat too and his name was Charlie. Suddenly Charlie barked and we saw another ship. We were very happy then. Charlie is a good dog!

Buch, S. 86, Aufg. 1:

1. Hier dürfen Gäste des Bed & Breakfast parken. Falschparker werden abgeschleppt.
2. Man soll klingeln, wenn man bedient werden möchte. Vermutlich wurde das Schild geändert, weil die Gäste die Glocke zu laut geläutet haben.
3. Nein, das ist nur ein Scherz. Es gibt kein Frühstück ans Bett.
4. Bei der Ankunft müssen die Gäste die Hälfte der Rechnung begleichen.
5. Ich werfe die nassen Handtücher in den Wäschekorb.
6. Es bedeutet, dass alle Zimmer belegt sind.

Workbook, S. 70:Aufg. 1a):

4. What would you tell your teacher if you forgot to do your homework? - I would tell him/her that my dog ate it.

Aufg. 11:

Dear Sarah,

That's bad news. If I were you, I wouldn't tell your dad. He won't buy you a new phone. Why don't you buy a phone yourself? If your parents paid you for your work in the B&B, you'd have enough money for a new one. Think positive and everything will be OK.

See you, Julie

Workbook, S. 82, Aufg. 1:

1. Was bedeutet respektvoller Umgang im B&B?

Man soll nichts beschädigen oder mitnehmen. Wenn eine Tür geschlossen ist, soll man nicht hineingehen.

2. Wie ist das mit dem Telefonieren?

Es gibt keine Telefone auf dem Zimmer. Für persönliche Gespräche soll man das eigene Handy benutzen.

3. Was soll man beim Reservieren beachten?

Meistens gibt es eine Webseite, auf der steht, wie man reservieren kann. Man soll nicht während der Frühstückszeiten anrufen.

Workbook, S. 82, Aufg. 2:

Your mum: Ich mag diesen Toast überhaupt nicht. Frag mal, ob es auch Bauernbrot gibt.

You: Excuse me, do you have any farmer's bread?

Woman: Yes, I'll get you some. Would you like anything else?

You: Ja, sie bringt uns gleich welches. Willst du sonst noch etwas haben?

Your mum: Ja, ich hätte gerne Zitrone für den Tee.

You: Can we have some lemon for the tea?

Woman: I'm sorry, I don't have any lemons. But I can get you some milk.

You: Sie hat leider keine Zitronen. Aber sie kann uns Milch bringen.

Your mum: Milch? In meinem Tee? Nein danke.

You: No, thank you.
